The Fire pit:

The pages of the Tome of Curses were protected with powerful magic, they could not be destroyed by normal means. I have longed searched for a way to destroy the pages of the Tome of Curses; I finally found the correct mixture of Goblin oil and Goblin tinder create a flame that would consume the parchment the curses are written upon. Once you have retrieved a page from the Tome toss it into the fire pit, it will be destroyed. This flame will burn will burn until the summer solstice, so there is limited time to destroy the Tome.
